RE/WORK

VELIER is an innovative premium British re-work brand, dedicated to circular fashion by carefully sourcing high quality vintage pieces and re-working them in our atelier studio. Our edits are designed in London by our founder Ruthie Vout, drawing over 25 years of experience in design and pattern cutting. Our dedicated atelier team is based in Nottingham, Ruthies home town, which is where we produce one-of-a-kind premium product that is sustainable, unique and modernised through fit and function.

A side-profile photograph of a woman standing against a plain, light-colored wall. She is wearing a long, dark blue denim duster coat that reaches down to her ankles. The coat has a high collar, long sleeves, and a matching fabric belt tied around her waist. Her hands are tucked into the coat's pockets. She is also wearing dark denim jeans and black loafers. The floor is a light brown color.
